

Mr. Miguel Tiana
Director-General of COFIDES

Miguel Tiana holds a degree in Economics from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and a Master's degree in economic policy management from Columbia University (New York). He is the author of several specialized publications on economic matters.

He began his professional career in the Research Service of the Bank of Spain and has also worked as consultant for the World Bank. In 2012 he joined the Higher Corps of Commercial Technicians and State Economists. Since then he has held various positions in the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Digital Transformation. Since 2019 he held the position of Deputy Director General for External Debt Management and International Financing, being responsible for managing the external debt held by the Spanish State as a creditor and participating in the governance bodies of the different instruments of official financial support for internationalization and development.

He was a member of the Executive Committees of FIEX and FONPYME and of the Technical Investment Committee of the FONREC (all of them managed by COFIDES), as well as FONPRODE (Fund managed by the AECID in which COFIDES provides support as an independent expert), of the FIEM and the Risk Risk Commission CESCE on behalf of the State. He has also been a member of the Board of Directors of CESCE. In 2022, Miguel Tiana was appointed General Director of COFIDES.

He was a member of the Executive Committees of FIEX and FONPYME and of the Technical Investment Committee of FONREC (all managed by COFIDES), as well as of FONPRODE (a fund managed by AECID in which COFIDES provides support as an independent expert), FIEM and the CESCE Risk Committee on behalf of the State. He has also been a member of CESCE's Board of Directors.

In November 2022, Miguel Tiana was appointed Director-General at COFIDES.