

Exclusion List

- The housing sector, unless it is deemed acceptable on a case by case basis.
  - The defence industry, unless when financing the production and commercialisation in a country in the European Union or NATO of parts, components and subsystems destined to non-lethal defence.
- Activities recognised below:
1. Exploitative or harmful forms of child labour or forced labor.
  2. Activity linked to pornography and/or prostitution.
  3. Production or trade of any product or development of any activity considered illegal according to the laws and regulations of the country where the project is located.
  4. Production and trade of prohibited substances or in process of withdrawal such as, for example, (i) polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) (ii) ozone-layer depleting substances and (iii) herbicides, pesticides, drugs and other chemicals.
  5. Trading wild fauna and flora regulated by the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES).
  6. Use of driftnets of over 2.5km in length.
  7. Production or trading products that contain loose asbestos fibres.
  8. Cross-border trade of products or waste, unless it complies with the established Basel Convention and the regulations related to this Convention.
  9. Generation of energy using nuclear fuel and/or production, storage, treatment and trade of radioactive products, including radioactive waste.
  10. Destruction of areas considered to be of High Conservation Value.